DEFENDANT: BRIAN RUBEL

CASE NUMBER: 7:09-cr-00898 (CS)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

supplanceabuse

The defendant will participate in a program approved be the United States Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to using drugs or alcohol. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse treatment provider, as approved by the probation officer. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) in an amount determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or the availability of third-party payment.

The defendant shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in a sex offender treatment and/or mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s) including submission to polygraph testing. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in any records for mental health assessment and treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the probation officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount approved by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

For the first five (5) years of supervised release, the defendant shall not have deliberate contact with any child under 18 years of age, unless approved by the probation officer. For the first five (5) years of supervised release the defendant shall not loiter within 100 feet of schoolyards, playgrounds, arcades, or other places primarily used by children under the age of 18.

The defendant shall participate in the Computer/Internet Monitoring program administered by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant must provide the U.S. Probation Office advance notification of any computer(s), automated service(s), or connected device(s) that will be used during the term of supervision and that can access the internet. The U.S. Probation Office is authorized to install any application as necessary to survey all activity on any computer(s) or connected devices owned or operated by the defendant. The defendant may be required to pay the cost of monitoring services at the monthly rate provided by the U.S. Probation Office. The U.S. Probation Office will be notified via electronic transmission of impermissible/suspicious activity or communications occurring on such computer or connected device, consistent with the computer monitoring policy in effect by the probation office. As triggered by impermissible/suspicious activity, the defendant shall consent to and cooperate with unannounced examinations of any computer equipment owned or used by the defendant. This examination shall include but is not limited to retrieval and copying of all data from the computer(s), connected device(s), storage media, and any internal or external peripherals, and may involve removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. Any employer who employs the defendant in a position in which he will have computer access at work is to be notified of this condition.

The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to a search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

The defendant is to report to the nearest probation office within 72 hours of release from custody.

It is recommended that the defendant be supervised by the district of residence.
